

My Years on the Stage

By JOHN DREW

With a foreword by Booth Tarkington

This is an extraordinarily interesting review, not merely of the stage for the last fifty years, but of life in many aspects, for Mr. Drew has had a peculiarly rich existence. He has met almost everyone worth meeting in many varied walks of life. He has been everywhere and seen everything. And he writes of it all with charm and good taste. Illustrated, $5.00

Oliver Herford says of it in Life: "The glamour of the golden age of the American Drama is happily reflected in the mirror of this narrative, whose valuable records and commentaries, together with the directness and the good style of its telling, place it at the head of all the personal dramatic histories of late years."

The Daily News, Chicago: "These are the most entertaining memoirs of the stage that I have ever chanced to read . . . He writes of fascinating experiences and people with all the suave humor that has characterized John Drew upon the stage . . . He relates anecdotes of an amazing array of personages . . . and there is much charm in the telling."

Forty-Odd Years in the Literary Shop

By JAMES L. FORD

A good gift for those who know New York—and those who do not—amazing in its scope, extraordinarily entertaining. Fully illustrated. $5.00

Far Away and Long Ago

By W. H. HUDSON

A gift for those who have not read this utterly charming record of the early years in the Argentine of this great naturalist, who was in many ways the finest writer England has had in a generation. $3.00

William Dean Howells

By DELMAR GROSS COOKE

One of the sanest, sincerest and most finished biographical and critical studies in American literature. It is fresh, original and very readable. This book should stand beside Howells's novels in every library. $3.00

The Works of LI-PO Chinese Poet

Done into English Verse by SHIGEYOSHI OBATA

There is color, freshness and poignancy in this verse, which has outlived a thousand years. It is issued in a volume which will catch the eye at once of any one who desires to make a gift of quaint, exotic distinction. $3.50

The Roadmender

By MICHAEL FAIRLESS

The 48th edition of this exquisite classic is illustrated with 20 mounted photographs of places mentioned in the text. Their soft grays blend into the restfulness of its spirit to an unusual degree. $6.00

The Life of the Spirit and the Life of Today

By EVELYN UNDERHILL

In simple, untechnical language she shows the relation of the life of the spirit to the modern world-view of history, modern psychological inquiry, institutional religion, education, and to the personal and social life of today. $2.50

The Light Which Cannot Fail

By WINIFRED HOLT

Reveals some of the touches of romance with which the author has come into touch during her widely known work of lightening the lives of the blind, both in this country and in Europe. $3.50

A Little Garden the Year 'Round

By GARDNER TEALL

For those who realize that garden-making is half drudging and half dreaming. A book to be cherished. $2.50

Garden Colour

Notes and Water Color Sketches

By MARGARET WATERFIELD

With contributed articles by Mrs. C. W. Earle, Rose Kingsley and others. $6.00

Terriers

By DARLEY MATHESON

Whether your prejudice is for the Welsh or Fox, Airedale, Black-and-Tan, or any other terrier, you will find this book on their handling valuable. $3.00

Fishing From the Earliest Times

By WILLIAM RADCLIFFE

References to fishing gathered from all countries and made into an interesting, well-illustrated volume. $10.00

Sporting Fire-Arms of To-day in Use

By PAUL A. CURTIS, Jr., sporting editor of "Field and Stream." Very complete and exceedingly valuable to any sportsman $3.50

Elementary Equitation

Principles of Horseback-Riding

By BARETTO de SOUZA

Illustrated under the direction of the author, an experienced riding-master, with drawings by Victor Nickol and photographs. $3.50

The Genoa Conference

By J. SAXON MILLS

"Mr. Mills's story is one of vast importance," the critics say, and one deserving place in the libraries of all who follow international events. $8.00

The Russian Turmoil

By GENERAL DENIKIN

Not merely interesting but to any one interested in Russia of great historical value. $8.00

Lenin

By M. A. LANDAU-ALDANOV

A sane and adequate portrait of a strong and curious personality. $3.00

Industrial and Commercial South America

By ANNIE S. PECK

Invaluable to any one having interests in South America. Every country is dealt with fully and in an interesting way. $5.00

Japan's Pacific Policy

By K. K. KAWAKAMI

Both interesting and important to any student of Japan as a world-power. $5.00

Poland Reborn

By ROY DEVEREUX

A very readable and sympathetic account of the political, social and economic condition of Poland. $6.00

American Water-Colourists

By A. E. GALLATIN, author of

"Art and the Great War," etc. A valuable review, with 30 plates, eight of them in color. Printed by Rudge and Bruce Rogers as an édition de luxe limited to 950 copies. $15.00

Julian Alden Weir

By DUNCAN PHILLIPS, in collaboration with other artists and critics. With 33 full-page reproductions. $18.00

Candide—By Voltaire

Illustrated by ALAN ODLE

whose drawings when exhibited in London created a veritable sensation. $5.00

Hamlet—By Shakespeare

Decorated by JOHN AUSTEN

Twenty full-page plates and many marginal drawings. $10.00

The Winter's Tale

Illustrated in colors by MAXWELL

ARMFIELD, whose pictures in tempera aim to show what conclusions the artist has reached on certain questions of stage setting for Shakespeare's plays. $7.00

In Lotus Land—Japan

By HERBERT PONTING

Superbly illustrated with 8 plates in colors and 80 in monochrome, from photographs by the author. $6.00

BOOKS FOR THE REFLECTIVE READER

The Caveman Within Us

By WILLIAM J. FIELDING

A penetrating study of how a lack of working adjustment between the subconscious forces of human nature and the forces of surface and social life is the cause of all kinds of minor trouble which can be eliminated. $3.00

Our Unconscious Mind And How to Use It

By FREDERICK PIERCE

Clearly explains the work of Coue and Baudouin, and offers a practical method for the application of auto-suggestion to the problems of everyday life. $3.00

Politics

By FRANK EXLINE

An original investigation into the defects of all present forms of government and a proposal for a Political System which through the Scientific Selection of representatives will produce the best possible government in any given community. $2.00

Robinson Crusoe Social Engineer

By HENRY E. JACKSON

President of the National Community Board, who demonstrates that the world is only Crusoe's island on a larger scale, and that his discovery solves the labor problem and opens the path to industrial peace. $3.00

THE LIFE OF CARDINAL GIBBONS

By ALLEN SINCLAIR WILL, A.M., Litt. D., LL. D.

A record of the manifold activities of James Gibbons as parish priest, missionary bishop, metropolitan archbishop and Prince of the Church, and an account of his contacts with rulers and statesmen here and abroad, of his influence in labor circles and wherever the great questions of the day demanded his wise consideration. So closely was the long life of Cardinal Gibbons lived in contact with the life of the country he loved that for many years it will be possible to turn to these pages for light upon almost any one of the great questions which in the last half-century have stirred the nation. These volumes deserve to stand beside the life of Phillips Brooks, of Theodore Roosevelt, or of your favorite American, whoever he may be. With portraits and other illustrations. Two volumes. $10.00

All prices are net, postage extra. These books can be obtained through any bookstore, or if not, direct from

E. P. DUTTON & COMPANY, Publishers, 681 Fifth Ave., New York

Send for their illustrated catalogues (free): "Books Suitable for Gifts" and "Books for Children."